

HURRICANE FLOYD THEN & NOW

a decade later...Rocky Mount Remembers

a commemorative event to mark the ten year anniversary of the worst natural disaster in North Carolina's history

Wednesday, September 16, 2009

opening session: 9:00 am a complimentary breakfast reception will begin at 7:45 am exhibits will close at 3:30 pm

Workshops will be offered on a variety of topics of interest to elected officials, community & civic leaders, business owners, emergency management professionals, & the general public.

Topics will include:

Hurricane Floyd's Historical Flooding & Impact

Advancements in Hurricane Prediction

River Flood Forecasting

State & Local Emergency Management Plans

National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP)

The Imperial Centre

for the Arts & Sciences

270 Gay Street

Rocky Mount, North Carolina

Hosted by:

The City of Rocky Mount

Admission is free, but registration is required.

Breakfast & lunch will be provided for registered participants.

Register by Mail:

return your completed registration form no later than Tuesday, September 1

Register Online:

complete the registration form at www.imperialcentre.org
by Friday, September 4

for more information, please call (252) 972-1332 or visit www.imperialcentre.org

FEMA

